supplements 568 pages of about $23\frac{1}{2}$ square inches of type each, a total of 13,348 square inches.

Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory and Clergy List Quarterly for 1887, with supplements, contained 639 pages of about $26\frac{3}{10}$ square inches of type each, making a grand total of 16,806 square inches, thus containing 3,458 square inches or 147 1-2 pages more than its competitor furnished. This is figuring the actual directory, commencing with the report of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, up to the end of the Clergy List. Let these figures speak for themselves without further comment. We thought it necessary, however, to make these statements in order to prevent our patrons from being misled by the "mis"-statements made by the New York concern. We regret to be forced into a controversy of this kind, but have been compelled to do so through the policy adopted by our competitor.

We have made a large number of improvements, among which we call particular attention to the re-arrangement of all the Diocesan reports so that all reports are now arranged in exactly the same manner, giving the book a uniform arrangement throughout the entire work.

The publishers, having established a Directory at a reasonable price will now continue to improve it from year to year, believing it to be better to furnish the best that can be furnished at the price of 50 cts., and in this way publish a good Directory at the reasonable rate they have established, than to furnish a "cheap" and *un*reliable book at a cheap price.

The Publishers desire to express their sincere thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Rt. Rev. Bishops, the Rev. Secretaries, and others, who have kindly assisted them in preparing and revising the reports for publication.

We tender our thanks also to our numerous patrons for their hearty support of our undertaking, and their liberal subscriptions, without which this difficult undertaking would not have met with such success.

With these few prefatory remarks, we place our book in the hands of our friends and the public.

— GENERAL OFFICE —

The Dueber Watch Case Mfg. Co.

To Watch Buyers:

Being thoroughly convinced ourselves that THE DUEBER WATCH CASES, in quality, workmanship and finish have NO SUPERIOR (IF EQUAL) IN THE WORLD, it is no wonder that we continually put forth our best efforts to make every one believe it as firmly as we do, and to spend thousands of dollars annually in spreading the glad news among the people of this country.

We have converted many, and count our faithful followers by the thousands, but still there is great work to do, and we shall not be satisfied UNTIL THE WHOLE WORLD acknowledge the justness of our claims, and each individual uses the best,
THE DUEBER WATCH CASE.

OUR claims for merit are broad and great, but each one is made in honesty and candor, and all are capable of being proven practically. Study carefully the points we set forth and be assured that, if thoroughly investigated, it will be found that

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

THE CARDINAL BISHOPS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH,

DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA.

ESTABLISHED MARCH, 1870.

Comprises East, Middle, and South Florida.

Florida, east of the Appalachian River, was erected by Pope Pius IX. into a Vicariate-Apostolic in the year 1857, and in 1870 into the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Bishop—Rt. Rev. JOHN MOORE, D.D., cons. May 13, 1877.

Late Bishop—Rt. Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D., cons. April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida; translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861; appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870; d. June 10, 1876.

Vicar-General.—Very Rev. HY. CLAVREUL, residing at Mandarin.

Chancellor—REV. EDW. A. PACE, D.D.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Cathedral of St. Augustine (3000). Rev. Edw. A. Pace, D.D., rector. The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind outside of city of St. Augustine.

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

Office:—The Sun Building, No. 1315 F. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs.

It was incorporated, under the laws of the United States, on June 14, 1887, being empowered thereby to receive bequests—its corporate name being “THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.”

It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, formally recognized as an institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of five Prelates, consisting of His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons, Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena; and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Vicar Apostolic of Dakota. This Committee has laid down rules for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as members thereof the following:—

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance, which is done by means of contracts entered into between the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Bureau.

For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1887, and ending June 30, 1888, the Bureau has secured Contracts for carrying on 33 Boarding and 13 Day Schools, providing for the support and tuition of 2012 boarding pupils and the tuition of 620 day pupils, with an aggregate compensation of $236,854.

FRANCIS BAUMER,

411 North Alvord Street, Syracuse, New York,

—MANUFACTURER OF—

Hand Casted, Patent Finished Wax Candles,

Molded Wax Candles, Tapers, Parlor Candles,

ETC.

The enormous sales of my Hand Casted Patent finished Wax Candles during the last year, prove sufficiently, that the Rev. Clergy and Religious all through the United States appreciate their superiority over all others. An unlimited number of letters, expressing the fullest satisfaction, have been received from all parts of the country. It can be truly stated that no other Wax Candles can equal the above named Candles in quality, finish and burning.

While I especially recommend to all purchasers to use my Hand Casted, Patent Finished Wax Candles, I also manufacture a Molded Wax Candle, which I am positive, is far superior to all molded Wax Candles of other manufacturers, as a careful comparison has shown my molded candles to be not only of better looks and finish, but also superior in brightness and steadiness of flame.

Roman Candles, plain and ornamental of every description are kept in stock by all dealers, wholesale and retail, throughout the United States and are sold by them at manufacturers' prices. If you want satisfaction mention Baumer's Candles, when ordering, and thus avoid disappointment and uncertainty in regard to quality and workmanship. Baumer's Candle is the leading one.

To convince the esteemed Rev. Clergy and Religious Orders of the correctness of my assertions above made, I place in testimony only one of the many complimentary letters received and remain. Your obedient servant.

FRANCIS BAUMER.

Mr. Francis Baumer, Manufacturer of Wax Candles, etc.:

DEAR SIR—With great pleasure I herewith testify to the perfect satisfaction your candles have always, without any exception, given us. Your record as a lifelong member of this congregation, and your services for thirty-six years past as teacher and organist are unimpeachable, and you are deserving therefore all honor and credit. You and the members of your family have ever exercised a decided influence in our congregation by your good, Christian example and moral life in the interest of our religion and its clergy. Your workmen are also all good practical Catholics. This recommendation is more than can be given any other business man in your line in this city. This in the name of the Fathers Minor Conventuales.

REV. LEONARD REICH, Pastor of the Assumption Church, Syracuse, N. Y.

A GREAT RAILWAY.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company now owns and operates over fifty-six hundred miles of thoroughly equipped road in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, and Dakota. Each recurring year its lines are extended in all directions to meet the necessities of the rapidly populating sections of country west, northwest and southwest of Chicago, and to furnish a market for the products of the greatest agricultural and stock raising districts of the world. In Illinois it operates 317 miles of track; in Wisconsin, 1,287 miles; in Iowa, 1,566 miles; in Minnesota, 1,114 miles; in Dakota, 1,213 miles; in Missouri, 142 miles, and the end is not yet. It has terminals in such large cities as Chicago, Milwaukee, La Crosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Fargo, Sioux City, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo., and along its line are hundreds of large and small thriving cities, towns and villages. Manufacturing interests are cultivated, and all branches of trade find encouragements. The Railway Company has a just appreciation of the value of its patrons, and its magnificent earnings are the result of the good business tact which characterizes the management of its affairs.

The popularity of the line is attested by the fact that, notwithstanding the strongest kind of competition of old and new lines, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway continues to carry a very large per cent. of all the business between Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and between Chicago, Council Bluffs and Omaha. It is the best patronized route to and from all points in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa, and now its Kansas City line being completed, it will undoubtedly take equal rank with the older lines leading to and from the southwest.

On all its through lines of travel the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway runs the most perfectly equipped trains of Sleeping, Parlor and Dining Cars and Coaches. No effort is spared to furnish the best accommodations for the least money, and, in addition, patrons of the road are sure of courteous treatment from its employes.

Take it all in all, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul is the peer of any railway in this or any other country.

ST. JOSEPH'S SEMINARY.

For Colored Missions.

There are in the Southern States over 6,000,000 Negroes, of whom not 100,000 are Catholics. The various Protestant sects claim but 3,000,000, thus leaving over 3,000,000 who belong to no church. A double duty, as Catholics and Americans, lies upon us. St. Joseph's Seminary will help in part to fulfill these duties. It needs subjects, who will devote themselves to this Apostolic work. It is entirely dependent on alms. Address,

REV. JOHN R. SLATTERY,

Rector,

St. Joseph's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.

A Popular Defense of Christian Doctrines.

BY REV. JOHN GMEINER.

Vol. I: Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared.

Price, in Paper Cover, 35 Cts.; In Cloth 60 Cts.

The Dublin Review, April, 1885.

"This unpretentious little volume . . . is a treasury of scientific information and philosophical criticism. . . . In small compass we have here a lucid refutation of the more popular and widespread errors of the day. . . .

The general reader will rise from the perusal of this little work, not merely instructed and entertained, but, what is vastly more important, with his faith strengthened in the dogmas of the Church, and his mind comforted by the evident harmony reigning between religious and scientific truth. To those whose duties oblige them to mix in infidel society, this volume may be strongly recommended. Indeed, it is on the side of a false science and a corrupt philosophy that we must chiefly look for the tempest that is to try us. The true wisdom, then, is not to shirk difficulties or to deny facts, but to answer the one and to explain the other. Considering its very limited size and the extent of the ground it covers, this task has been ably done in the present volume."

The New York Freeman's Journal:

"Father Gmeiner has produced, with great carefulness, with scholarly precision, and with terseness and clearness of expression, an antidote, much needed to that most insidious poison, modern scientific infidelity. . . . It is an immense value to counteract the effects of scrappy reading and lack of thinking which sometimes make scoffers and skeptics of ill-instructed Catholics."

Vol. II: The Spirits of Darkness and their Manifestations on Earth; or, Ancient and Modern Spiritualism.

Price, in Paper Cover, 35 Cts.; In Cloth, 60 Cts.

The Ave Maria, Notre Dame, Ind:

"This is Volume II. of 'A Popular Defense of Christian Doctrines,' and it is not less able and opportune than the first—'Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared.' The subject so learnedly treated of is highly important; for, do away with the spirits of darkness, and you do away with the whole Christian Revelation. The work amply proves the existence of those spirits, and that they concern themselves in the affairs of men. It is suited, therefore, for those amongst us who are thrown into the company of modern Sadducees and infidels, and who should be ready with an answer to their objections. It deserves a place also in the library of such as come in contact with Spiritualists, showing as it does, the real nature of those spirits evoked by mediums, and of whose manifestations we nowadays read so much."

Mind in Nature: A Popular Journal of Psychical, Medical and Scientific Information, Chicago:

"The Spirits of Darkness and their manifestations on earth; or ancient and modern spiritualism, by the Rev. John Gmeiner . . . is a carefully prepared and well written statement of the doctrine of the Catholic Church on the subject, that will well repay perusably all interested in psychical phenomena; as evidence of the thoroughness of the professor, we note the fact that he has three hundred and sixty foot notes of references, ranging from the earliest records down to Mind in Nature for February (1886)."

Vol. III: On Christ.

Is in course of preparation for the press and is expected to be published about March, 1888.

The success which has crowned the efforts of the publishers of THE CHURCH NEWS, during the past year to establish a first-class Catholic family journal, at the National Capitol, is an assurance that their enterprise is fully appreciated, and that it supplies the want long felt in Washington and the surrounding country.

THE CHURCH NEWS

Has not only received the endorsement of the most competent judges in Washington, but the large number of letters received from the Rev. Clergy, religious, and laity from all parts of the country, show that

A Catholic Paper has at length arisen that meets the needs of the Public.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

THE CHURCH NEWS offers rare advantages,

It being one of the most carefully read, and having a larger circulation than any other weekly paper published at the National Capitol; it also largely circulates through Virginia, Maryland, and the surrounding country.
